CONNERSVILLE
HIGH SCHOOL ANNUAL

To Anne
my favoriteest frosh.
We've had our times together, haven't we? Remember the rat bailing days? I know you've had your problems, but I hope things are beginning to straighten out. You're a wonderful girl and you have 3 more great years at CHS. Make the most of them. May the you always have the best in whatever you do. Best of luck always. Love Ann

SCHOOL SONG

Some the blue and gold do cherish, Some the cream and crimson choose;

Ah! but we would rather perish, Than the Red and White should lose.

Oh! the C. H. S. is loyal, To her colors all are true,

With a spirit rich and loyal, When there's earnest work to do.

We have fought with mind and muscle, We have often won the game;

Though the captain made us hustle, We enjoyed it all the same.

With a record bright with glory, With defeat and victory lined,

We are here to tell the story Of the Red and White entwined.

Let us always keep a mem'ry, Of our comrades far and near;

For they helped us on to vict'ry, With a right good will and cheer.

There are greater glories surely, In the days that are to be

So we'll hold our faith securely, Till our ship comes in from sea.

Friendly and cheerful is Mrs. Mary Isaacs. As head of the laundromat, she is in charge of the various athletic teams and physical education classes laundry.

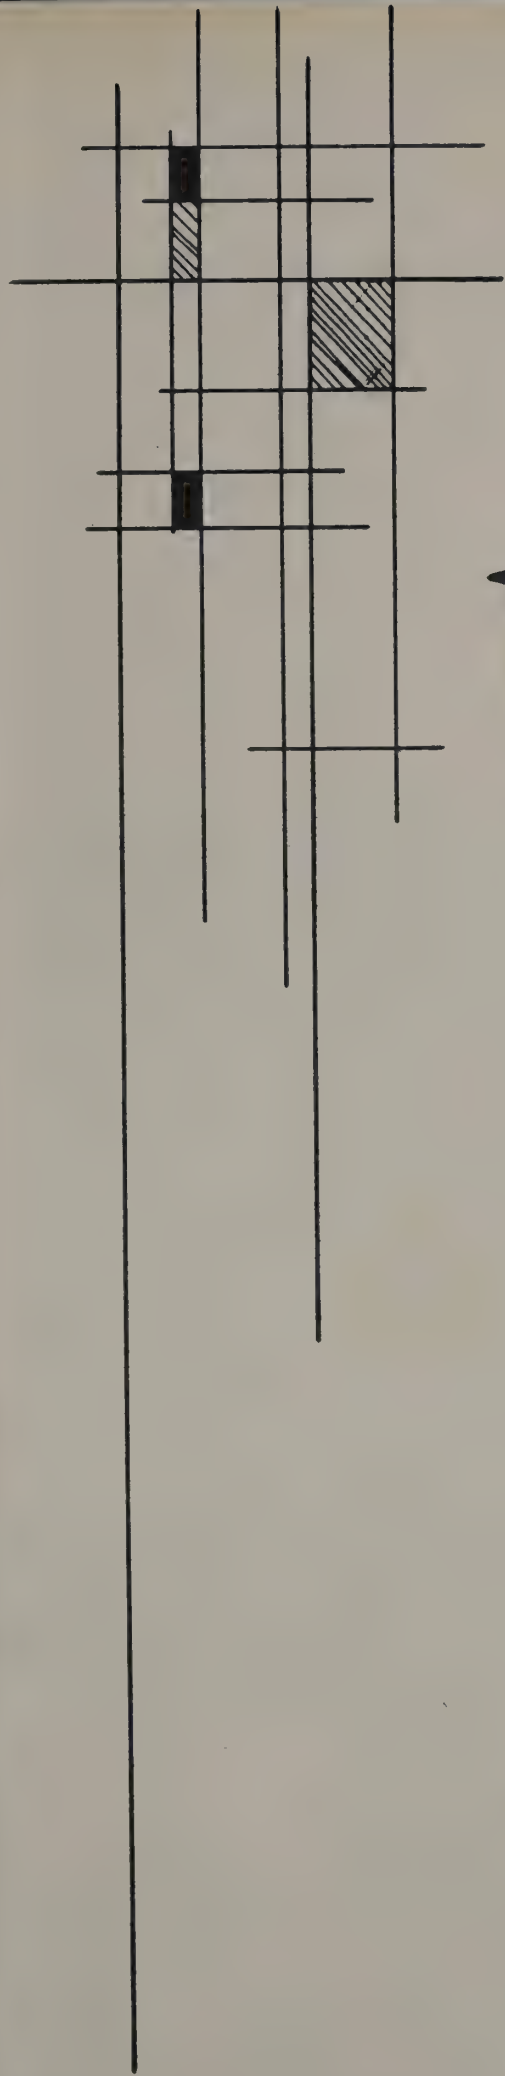

Chief chef, Helen Wilhelm, directs and assists these women in preparing and serving delicious and nutritional meals each day in our school cafeteria. They are H. Wilhelm, L. Washam, A. Miller, T. Issac, M. Smith, and J. Shonk.

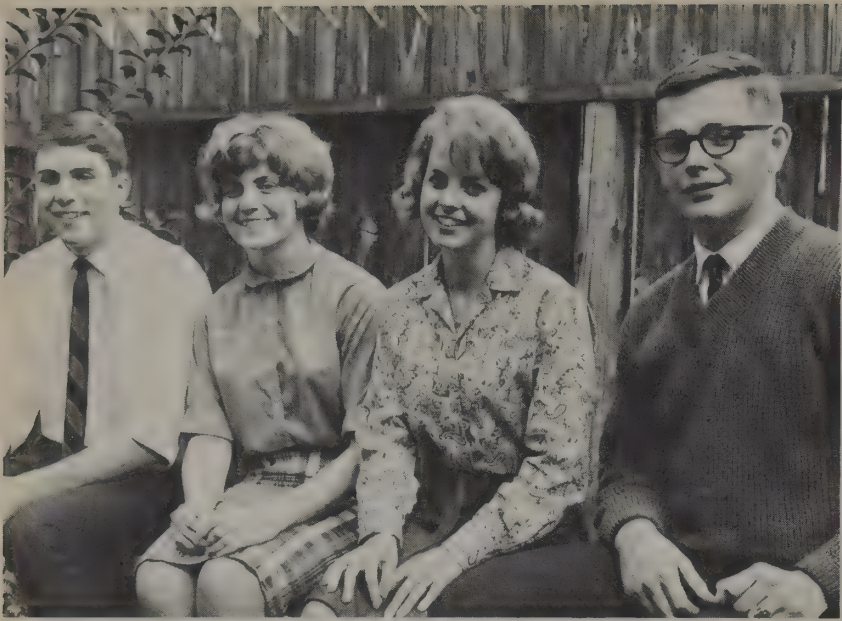

As head custodian, Arlin Isaacs supervises and assists these men in keeping the appearance of our school as neat and clean as possible. They are G. Wright, W. Dawson, A. Maupin, R. Johnson, H. Douthitt, and A. Isaacs.

HELPERS

Serving as the leaders of the Class of '65, are those Seniors who, in the estimate of their fellow classmates, will best fulfill the duties given them. Both Senior class officers and Senior council are chosen by nomination followed by election. Among their tasks are arrangement of the Senior Prom, selection of caps and gowns, and deciding on the style of graduation invitations.

Senior Council members include:

In days to come
Throughout the years,
Forget not the laughing
Nor the tears.

The joy of victory
And pain of defeat,
Memories emblazoned
Treasurer to keep.

Friendships we cherished
The thrill of first love,
Teachers who helped us
With aid from above.

Remember these years
As you go on your way,
Life's just beginning
This Graduation Day.

JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE

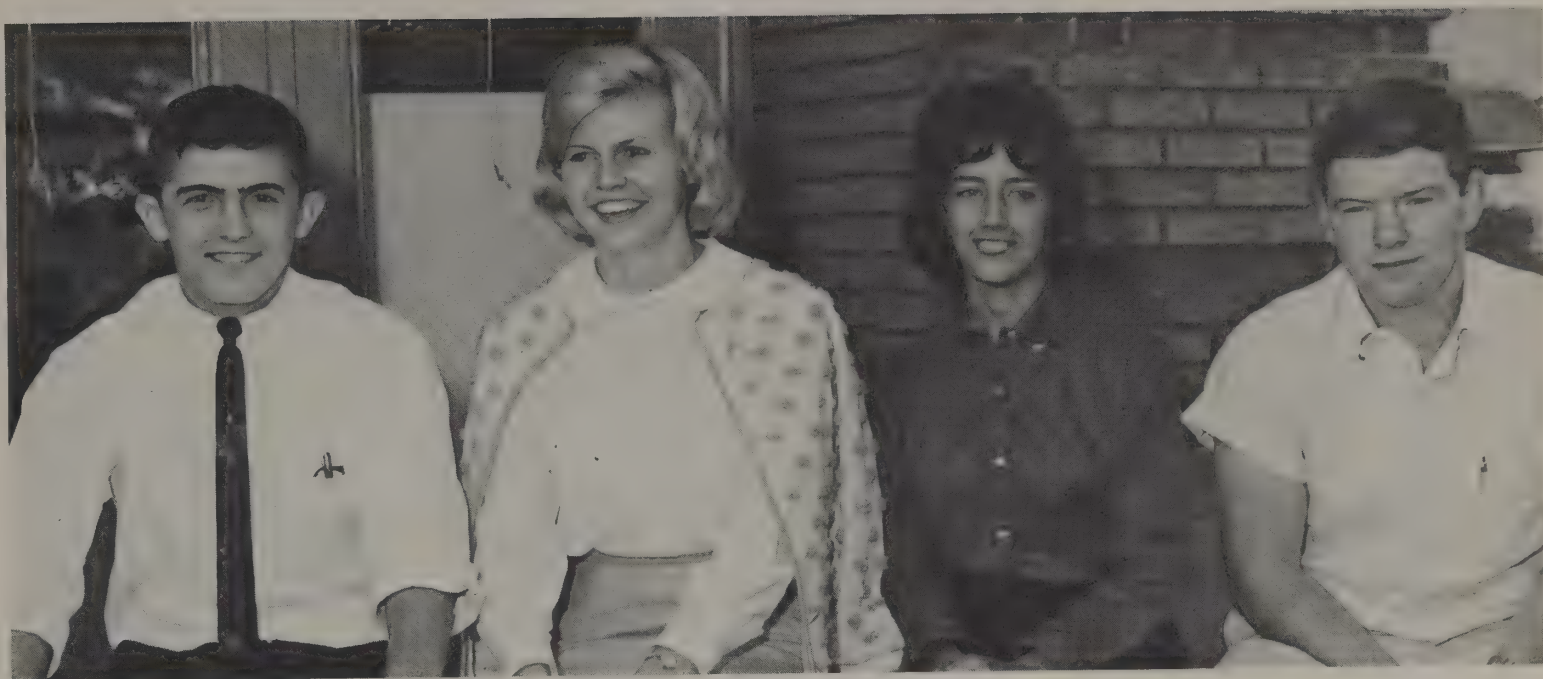

J. C. L. is an organization composed of sophomores, juniors, and seniors who have taken or are taking second year Latin. Under the direction of Mrs. Montgomery, the club holds various assimilated Roman ceremonies. Among these are monthly programs including appointments and execution of emperors, campaigns, and an election, an initiation picnic in the fall, and a banquet at the end of the year.

LE CERCLE FRANÇAIS

French Club is open to any student taking French or one who has had at least one year of French. At present there are 125 members for 1964-65. Annual events which are held are: a picnic in the fall for the initiation of new members, a traditional Christmas feast of roast pig, and a picnic in the spring for the seniors. The officers are as follows: Karen Wiik, Secretary; Sara Fetting, President; Sue Caldwell, Treasurer; Bill Hackleman, Vice-President, was not present for the picture. Mrs. Metz is the sponsor.

EL CIRCULO ESPAÑOL

Spanish Club is open to any student who has had one or more years of Spanish. Rough initiation is held for new members in the fall. Other activities are also held during the year. Officers for this year are: Ron Horning, President; Jennifer Jinks, Reporter; Marsha Howell, Secretary-Treasurer; Mike Young, Vice-President. Mr. Bonar is the faculty sponsor of this club.

FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA

Future Nurses Club is an organization composed of 47 sophomores, juniors, and seniors interested in a medical field. Through programs, field trips, and projects, the members become acquainted with the field of nursing. Those seniors desiring so may work at the hospital as Junior Red Cross Volunteers. The officers are: President, Vicky Rouse; Vice-President, Cathy Hendrix; Secretary-Treasurer, Virginia Thomas. Mrs. Kirkham is the sponsor.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

Again this year, FTA is providing its members with 14 outstanding programs to help them gain insight into the different areas of teaching and how best to prepare themselves for the profession. The officers for this year are: Vicki Harvey, Librarian; Elaine Brown, Historian; Denese Blue, Secretary; Judy Chomel, President; Karen Gesell, Parliamentarian; Pam Vayhinger, Treasurer; Jan Johnson, Vice-President. Mr. Hillman is the new sponsor this year.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

FHA, under the direction of Mrs. Fran McLaughlin, has enjoyed a very successful year. The outstanding projects of the club during this school year were; the Christmas Banquet with the FFA boys as guests, toy project, Christmas Candy and Cookie Sale, Style Show and Mother's Tea, and Cook Book Sale. Officers for the past year were: Ellen McCauley, President; Mary Macke, Historian; Karen Fenters, Treasurer; Jan Johnson, Secretary; Sherry Osborn, Vice-President; Debbie Myers, Reporter.

GIRLS ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Girls Athletic Association provides recreational activities for all high school girls beyond that which is taught in the physical education classes. There are thirty-four members this year. The officers are: Carol Sleet, Secretary; Vicky Rouse, President; Jackie Harvey, Treasurer. Pam Vayhinger, Vice-President, and Debbie Myers, Sergeant-at-Arms, were not present for the picture. Miss Nancy Cory is the sponsor.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The purpose of FFA is to create more interest in the intelligent choice of farming occupation, to encourage members to improve the farm home and its surroundings. Their projects this year were harvesting the yields from five acres of corn and six acres of soy beans. Officers for this year were: Front Row, Charles Sloneker, Chaplain; Don Henry, Secretary; Murrel Harper, 3rd Vice-President. Back Row includes: Gary McGraw, President; Tom Scholl, 1st Vice-President; Don Sloneker, Treasurer; David Hobbs, Reporter. Wayne Smallwood, 2nd Vice-President, and Bob Groce, Sentinel, were not present for the picture. Mr. McCauley served as sponsor of the club.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

FBLA consists of approximately 90 juniors and seniors taking business courses. FBLA has two annual projects; selling carnations at the first basketball game and working at J. C. Penney's. Miss Donna Bickle sponsors the club. Officers are as follows: Nancy Ratz, Secretary; Janie Manley, Treasurer; Sylvia Reeve, President; Karen Applegeet, Vice-President; Carolyn Pflum, Reporter.

USHERS CLUB

Any girls in the sophomore, junior, or senior class have the opportunity to join Girls Ushers Club. The members serve at plays, musical concerts, commencement, and baccalaureate exercises. The girls pass out programs, take tickets, and make the public welcome. The officers are as follows: Jean Creamer, Vice-President; Elaine Brown, President; Marsha Howell, Secretary-Treasurer. Mrs. Francis is the sponsor of the club.

PROJECTION CLUB

The Projection Club was reorganized this year under the guidance of Mr. Hillock, with Bill Whitten as President, Carol Britton as Secretary-Treasurer, and Dave Conrad as Vice-President. Members of Projection Club learn to run and repair movie projectors, filmstrip projectors, and tape recorders. After achieving these skills, they run the machines for teachers and clubs whenever called upon.

LIBRARY CLUB

The Library Club membership consists of students who work in the library at least a period a day. In the fall a general meeting is held to elect officers. Officers this year are: Mary Jo Pflum, President; Bob Poe, Vice-President; Darlene Dragoo, Secretary. At Christmas time the members had an annual dinner party and decorated the library for the Holiday season. This year the publishing of the club paper, "Yaks", was resumed with the December issue.

CAMERA CLUB

Camera Club is open to all students who are interested in learning to take and develop better pictures. The officers for this year are: Mike Barber, Treasurer; Dave Hamilton, Vice-President; Ralph Himmlick, President; Bill Witten, Secretary. The club's sponsor is Mr. Crone.

D.C.E.

The DCE course is a cooperative undertaking in which the school and local business and industries work together providing vocational training in the occupation of your choice. The students receive related study material as well as on-the-job experience. The course consists of one class period at school and 15 hours on the job after school for which two grades and two credits each semester are received. The officers are: Cheryl McDonough, Secretary; Sherry Osborne, Vice-President; Marianne Parker, Treasurer; David Chaney, President. The 21 students enrolled in DCE enjoy having Mr. W. E. Crone as their teacher, director, and friend.

STRUT ET FRET

Strut Et Fret, the school's oldest club, has 44 members. Membership is open to any sophomore, junior, or senior who has an interest in dramatics and successfully auditions for club membership. This year's fall production, a mystery comedy, "The Skeleton Walks", was presented in November. Officers for this year are: Marianne Parker, Vice-President; Cindy Wicker, Secretary-Treasurer. Bill Luking, President, was not present for the picture. Mr. Baker is the sponsor.

12 & 30

12&30 club is composed of high school journalists with at least fifteen printed inches of material to their credit. By being members of the Clarion and Cohiscan staffs, they achieved this goal. Its name is derived from the news terms for "beginning & end". Social functions are the main activities of the organization. Each year a few members of 12&30 are honored by being named as members of Quill & Scroll, a national journalistic honorary. The officers for this year are: Carol Hunt, Vice-President; John Flint, President; Bonnie McIntyre, Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. Rod Cord is the club's sponsor.

JUNIOR-SENIOR TRI-HI-Y

Junior-Senior Tri-Hi-Y is an organization open for membership to any interested junior or senior girl. The purpose of the club is to create, maintain, and extend, throughout the home, school, and community, high standards of Christian character. The officers this year were: Lee Thomas, Secretary; Jean Creamer, Sergeant-of-Arms; Sherry Osborn, President; Nancy Noble, Art Director; Ramona Hires, Reporter; Linda Dorsett, Vice-President; Jenny Jinks, Chaplain; Kathy McMichael, Treasurer. Nancy Foster served as the club's sponsor.

As a service project, the Freshman-Sophomore Tri-Hi-Y gave baskets to the needy families on Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter. They also, with the help of the Junior-Senior Tri-Hi-Y, constructed a float for the Halloween parade. Officers were: Janet Miller, President; Ann Kennedy, Treasurer; Pam Vabulous, Chaplain; Sharman Dobbs, Vice-President. Susan Morrison, Secretary, was not present for the picture. Mrs. Carolyn Ailes served as the sponsor.

A NIGHT TO REMEMBER

The Annual "Fall Junior-Senior Dance", held by the Junior class for the Seniors on Saturday, November 7, 1964, was a huge success this year. Over 200 Juniors and Seniors came and danced to music played by the Delphi's. All in all, it was certainly a night to remember with dreamy music floating through the "Harvest" decorated atmosphere.

Girls participating: Susan Morrison, Martha Nicholson, Margy Jo Meyers, Lee Thomas, Sherry Osborn, Janet Miller, Jackie Harvey, Sharmon Dobbs, Nancy Noble, and Jean Ann Creamer.

C.H.S. Our hats off to thee

All this and cheering too can wear a guy out!

Always cheering the Spartans on to victory, the well organized "Pepnocrates" can easily be seen as well as heard at all the home games. Under the sponsorship of Miss Cory and Mr. Carter the group has one-hundred and forty-four members.

They look like jolly Juniors, don't they?

Are these what they call female sports fans?

C.H.S. band under the direction of Mr. George Ewing well represented dear old Connersville High at various occasions through the year. Two concerts were given by the group and they also appeared in numerous parades throughout the area. All eighty members could also be seen at all the home football and basketball games throughout the year. Teaming with the Pepnocrates at the home basketball games the group made an attractive array of color.

I don't know what they're

Those not present for the picture are Bill Hackleman, Mary Ann Zumkeller, Chris Herdrich, Pam Chowning, Jack Shirkey, Linda Bryant, Kathy Chance, Linda Dorsett, and Linda Wright.

SPORTS

FOOTBALL VARSITY 1964

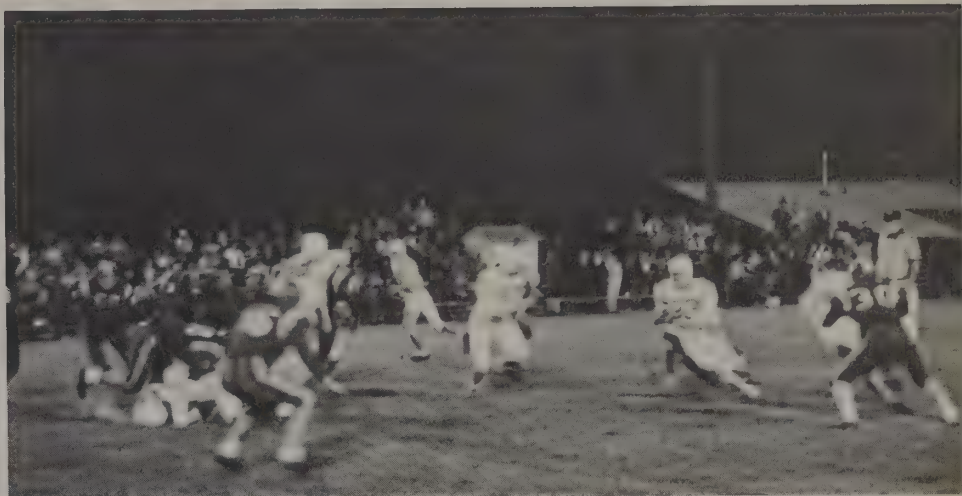

Sixteen Senior Spartans completed their high school football careers at the end of the 1964 season. They are pictured left to right: Bob Allen, Bill Schleeter, Jack Loyd, Stuart Burns, Steve Howe, John Holmes, Carson Plowman, Leonard Smithson, Bob Cheatham, Mike Ellis, James Moreford, R. H. Hunnings, Ron Horning, David Claerbout, John White, and Keith Quinlan.

COACHES, RECORD

Connersville's varsity finished their 1964 season with a 1-8 record. On October 9 the Spartans posted their victory over the arch-rival Rushville Lions. The game was played at Rushville, and the Spartans had many local fans spurring them on to victory. New head coach Jim Lods is expecting to bounce back next year with a fine Spartan team. Despite the poor record, many underclassmen gained experience for next year's varsity.

1964-65 LINKSMEN

This year's edition of the Spartan golf team placed 6th in the South Central Conference. The sixth place finishing was very commendable because only six strokes separated the Spartans from the second place team. Seymour served as host for the conference meet and Connersville was represented by Jay Benson, who was low for the locals with an 80, Bill Foster, Nick Joest, and Bill Wiley. Benson also received the plaque for being the most valuable Spartan golfer. Graduating seniors are Benson, Foster, Joest, Wiley, and John Henninger. Terry Bickel, a promising freshman, will lead the Spartans into a rebuilding year next season.

BASEBALL

Returning lettermen will be scarce when the Spartans begin their 1965 season. Graduation losses were great and underclassmen will be counted on heavily this year.

Chuck Smith and John Sandman had quite a battle for the plaque for the highest batting average. Sandman finally won it but it wasn't decided until the final game.

The Spartans played a tough schedule in 1964 and finished the season with a very respectable 6-5 record. Victories came against Brookville, Muncie South, Greenfield, New Castle, Shelbyville, and Rushville.

AWARDS DAY FALL 1964

Stu Burns was also honored by being chosen to represent Connersville on the South Central Conference All Star Team. Coach Jim Lods is shown here giving him his award.

Serving as B-team cheerleaders were Linda Bryant, Sonya Warfield, and Jenny Jinks.

Leading cheers at the varsity games were Sue Caldwell, Caryn Fenters, Elaine Brown, Bonnie Moran, Jane Ann Allen, and Phyllis Wiley.

CHS CHEERLEADERS

Supporting the two freshman teams were Teresa Wiley, Shannon Cargal, Julie Hancock, Collette Ammerman, and Sally Reidman.

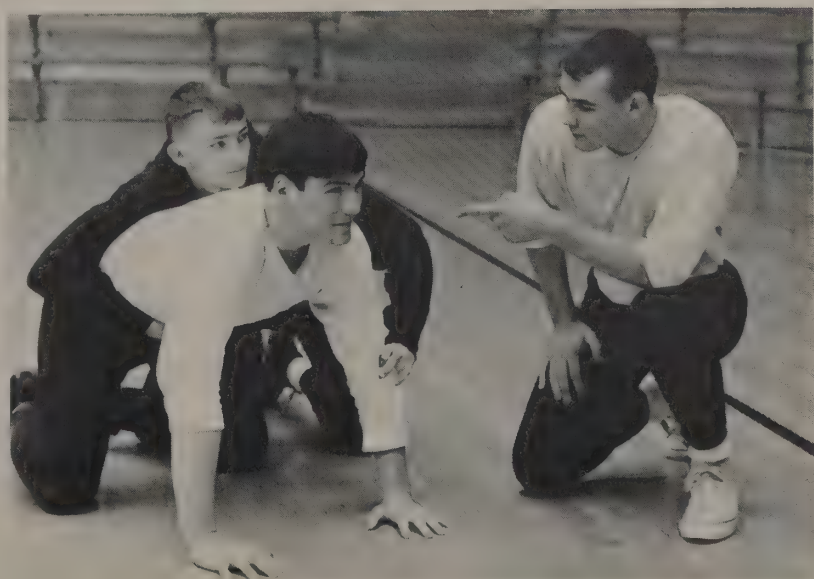

TENNIS SQUAD

Coach Don Criswell's tennis team finished sixth in the South Central Conference this year. The team was composed of all underclassmen, which makes the future very bright for the next few years. Consistent scorers for the team were Jack Shirkey, Jim Becht, Wayne Ripburger, Greg Lindsey, and Dale Geisting. Geisting was awarded the plaque for being the most valuable tennis player on the squad. Coach Criswell is looking forward to a winning season next year.

GRAPPLERS YOUNG, IMPRESSIVE

Although they lost ten of eleven matches this year, the Spartan wrestling team will probably return the favor to their opponents in future years. There were 28 members of the team this year and 19 of them were freshmen. Four of these frosh received varsity letters. Jay Benson and Jack Loyd turned in good seasons despite a losing year. Benson won 12 of 15 matches and Loyd won 12 of 16. Benson was also third in the sectional and Loyd was second. Six of the Spartans reversals were by just one weight class.

Senior Spartan matmen Jay Benson, in up position, Stuart Burns, in down position, and "referee" Jack Loyd, demonstrate how a wrestling match begins.

Connersville's 1964 cross-country team experienced the best season in the history of the school. Coach Robert Julian, in his first year at C.H.S., led the Spartan Harriers to a third place finish in the state sectionals. With nine out of the ten top runners back next year, the Spartans should have another strong contender.

CROSS COUNTRY, TRACK

Although dominated by underclassmen, the Spartan track team proved to be formidable opponents for everyone they faced. A highlight of the season was when John Holmes broke the 880 yard run record. Holmes ran the race in the time of 2:07.8. It was the oldest record on the books and had stood since 1951. Connersville sent seven men to the sectional at Richmond, and all seven of these boys were underclassmen.

1964-65 SPARTAN VARSITY

Coach Ray Green took the first steps in an overall rebuilding program to put the quality of basketball in Connersville back on top.

Seniors Gary Doyle and Ron Horning opened the season at guards for the Spartans, but Doyle missed the last half of the season due to a broken jaw. Horning then took control of the team and was the play-maker and leading scorer. Sophomore Bob Myers, Chester Brown, Larry Sturgeon, and Mike Watson also saw much action.

Freshman Gary Bailey was moved up to the varsity at the end of the first semester and showed much promise, as did the rest of the underclassmen.

Although losing 18 of 21 games, the Spartans never gave up and were always fighting until the final buzzer sounded.

JUNIOR VARSITY

"A" FROSH

Coach Don Criswell guided these boys through their first year of high school basketball.

"B" FROSH

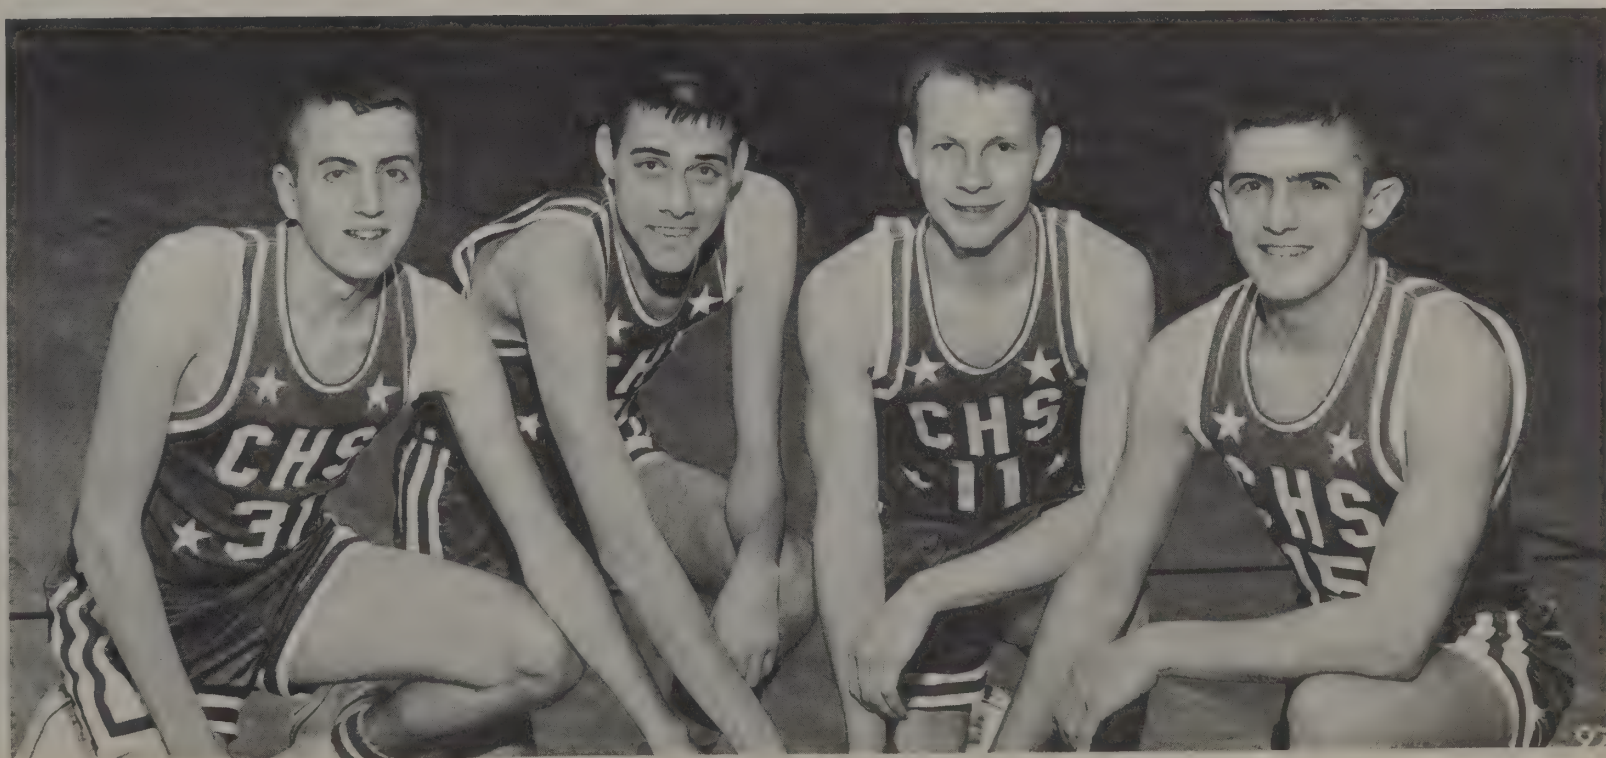

Coach Tom Gable was in charge of the "B" forces.
